2011 FESTIVAL

Here's where it's at . . . no traffic jams up here in the high sierras - just total immersion in biking activities for all riding abilities. Bring a group or come by yourself because you're guaranteed to meet many mountain bike enthusiasts just like you. All you must do is commit yourself to adventure.

Located just three hours northeast of Los Angeles, the quaint town of Kernville uses the Sequoia National Forest for a playground. Spend three fun-filled days with us and experience beautiful forests, high desert trails and country roads. Our professional guides will assist you throughout the Festival, providing limited transportation for certain rides, and keeping you informed of each day's events.

Join us for our 2011 Festival themed "TRAIL RAISER; Hair Raising Trails that CAPTURE the SOUL" Be sure to try to participate in the afternoon events.

Don't be left out! Come join in the fun and unforgettable quality time with your bike at our 2011, 20th Annual Kernville Fat Tire Festival and let us help you Adventure, Relax and Enjoy!

CAMP WHERE THE ACTION IS at Mountain & River Adventures Campground!

Enjoy our campground with hot showers and restrooms, picnic tables, fire pits, horseshoes, volleyball and climbing wall.

$42 per site, per night with camp reservation. Maximum 6 campers per site.

All Staging & Special Events are happening HERE! Call 800-861-6553 for reservations today!
