

General Trail Ride Descriptions

Forest 90 Fireroad (Beginner), Alta Sierra Shuttle.

Out and back on 9 mile loop, or can be a 20 mile loop. Rolling dirt road, great views, 6100'-7200' elevation. Then an additional twelve mile final decent to the valley floor. Ride finishes with an eight mile ride back to MRA Campground on pavement. Three to six hour ride.

Greenhorn Summit Loop (Beginner), Alta Sierra Shuttle.

25-30 miles of dirt roads. Start at 6,900 feet elevation. Two to three loops at 6,000 feet. Views, climbs, descents. Final descent is twelve miles to the valley floor. Ride finishes with an eight mile ride back to MRA Campground on pavement. Three to four hour ride.

Alta Sierra (Intermediate to Advanced)

20-25 miles of dirt roads & single track. Challenge “Just Outstanding” and leap into “Whoop-ty Do”! Forest, chaparral, dirt and sand. Final descent is twelve miles to the valley floor. Three to four hour ride.

Portugese Pass Trail (Intermediate), Alta Sierra Shuttle.

Seven miles out on dirt road and then back seven miles on single track. Mid-range climb and awesome views. Final descent is twelve miles to the valley floor. Ride finishes with an eight mile ride back to MRA Campground on pavement. Three to five hour ride.

Cannell Trail (Intermediate/Advanced)

Top Section of Cannell Trail. Start at 9200 feet. Ride extra eight mile single track to Big Meadow. Four to seven hour ride.

Kern Canyon Trail (Advanced 22 miles, mostly near the Kern River. Single track, climbs, and descents. Shuttle pick-up is at Delonegha Bridge at approximately 2:00 p.m. Three to five hour ride.